SAMARIAN PRODUCTIONS TO HOST RED CARPET
RECEPTION ANNOUNCING “KEEPER OF THE PINSTripES”
ROBBY BENSON IN LINE TO DIRECT NY YANKEES FILM STARRING JOSH LUCAS

November 14, 2008 (New York, New York) – Samarian Productions will host an exclusive invitation-only, red carpet reception to introduce the upcoming film tentatively titled “Keeper of the Pinstripes.” The reception will be held on Tuesday, November 18, 2008 from 7pm to 9:30pm at The Cutting Room, 19 West 24th Street (between 5th and 6th Ave), New York, NY. The reception will feature complimentary cocktails and light fare along with an exclusive performance by upcoming singer/songwriter Alessia Guarnera.

Robby Benson is in line to direct this family film, in which Josh Lucas will portray legendary NY Yankee Thurman Munson. Other iconic former players that appear in the film include Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. Bernie Williams and Darryl Strawberry have also agreed to roles.

Inspired by true events, the film tells the story of the reawakening of “Room 107,” a mysterious room hidden within the depths of Yankee Stadium where some of baseball’s greatest heroes would find solace. The Tom Ellis/Shawn Powell-written script is based on the New York Times Best Seller, “The Boy of Steel,” by Ray Negron.

New York-based Samarian Productions is executive producing the film. Filming on the private-equity-funded film will take place in New York City with a tentative start date of spring 2009.
